

AAU Organizes an Iftar Banquet for AAU Faculty and Staff Members

Within Ramadan's atmosphere which has been burnished by feelings of intimacy and affection, Al Ain University of Science and Technology organized a collective Iftar Banquet on the occasion of the holy month of Ramadan in Abu Dhabi and Al Ain campuses, both were held in the presence of Dr. Noor El-Deen Atatreh –AAU Chancellor, Professor Ghaleb El-Refae –AAU President, Professor Adulhafeez Belarabi –AAU Vice PResident, in addition to the Deans, heads of departments and a number of academic and administrative members.

This Iftar, which is held annually, comes in order to support the communication, bonds of love and brotherhood between the employees and to give a sense of the spiritual atmosphere of the holy month in addition to promoting the spirit of oneness.

After having the Iftar and to break the routine of the work and its pressures, the event was overwhelmed with atmosphere of fun and entertainment by offering a range of cultural and entertaining competitions which the employees participated in the spirit of vitality and enthusiasm, where the university is continuously seeking to hold such events to promote cooperation and the one-team spirit through its traditions and customs.

For his part, Dr. Noor Eldeen Atatreh, AAU Chancellor, welcomed the attendances and congratulated them on the occasion of the holy month of Ramadan. He expressed that this 'Iftar' comes to support the spirit of fraternity and collaboration characterizing the holy month of Ramadan and it also reinforces the bondage and communication among the faculty and staff members.

At the end of the gathering, the faculty and staff expressed their appreciation to AAU administration and wishing everyone a blessed Ramadan.
