

Sep 30, 2014

AAU President Receives Omani Cultural Attaché

Professor Ghaleb El Refae, the AAU President based in Al Ain, received the cultural attaché, Dr. Mahmoud bin Mubarak El Salimi, of the Attaché Cultural Embassy of the Sultanate of Oman from Abu Dhabi, in the presence of a number of academics and administrators, to meet with the Omani students enrolled at the university.

Professor Ghaleb El Refae gave a thorough account of the university's vision and the groundbreaking approaches in the planning and execution of programs in addition to the nationally, as well as globally accredited academic courses. He even elaborated the overall quality of education core pillars, as well as centers of excellence and scientific research.

Dr. Mahmoud bin Mubarak El Salimi was impressed with the vision and missionary work of the university's academia and its civilized pioneering platform that presents as a forerunner to keep up with the latest developments in knowledge and forward-looking initiative, reflecting a rich understanding of the future of teaching and academic work.

Press Release Link