Al Ain University Organizes Iftar for the AAU Staff Members

Al Ain University of Science and Technology in Abu Dhabi and Al Ain organized a collective Iftar during the holy month of Ramadan, which was held in the presence of President of the University and Chancellor, Professor Ghaleb El-Refae and Dr Noor Aldeen Atareh, respectively, in addition to the Deans of colleges, heads of departments and a number of academic and administrative bodies.

Dr. Atareh congratulated all for the month of Ramadan, wishing everyone success. He said that the occasion of holding the Iftar is for renewing the spirit of harmony and friendship, and to promote social interaction amongst us as a family. The AAU annually celebrates on this occasion, out of our desire to provide a good environment and climate, and strengthen the bonds of belonging, social communication among all staff, which in turn creates a good working environment.

He even stressed that the Iftar gathering gave an air of intimacy and affection among all staff and contributed to the development of a spirit of cooperation, as these meetings promote the concept of family among all employees which entrenches the meanings and values of social solidarity and compassion. Furthermore, he commended the staff for responding to the invitation, which the university organizes annually in the month of Ramadan. He concluded his greeting by offering them his most sincere good wishes on the upcoming Eid Al Fitr following the holy month's spiritual and social atmosphere.

At the end of the ceremony, the staff expressed their appreciation to the university administration calling on Allah to reconstruct the holy month for all the goodness and wellness.

This ceremony has included many events and competitions which gave it a vital and enthusiastic atmosphere.
