May 17, 2011

AAU, Al Ain Campus, Organizes International Day

Under the patronage of the AU president and the Director of Student Affairs, AU organized the International Day on Thursday, May 5, 2011.A number of faculty members and administrative staff attended as well as a large gathering of students and their families. The event included cultural and folkloric exhibits in addition to a variety of traditional food. The International Day has highlighted the cultural diversity within AU. Moreover, the harmonious relationship that bonds students was evident through their cooperation that led to the success of the event which lasted for well over three hours. It is noteworthy that this event is the fruit of the students' effort supported by the AU administration.

Press Release Link