Hajj Importance and Rituals Lecture at AAU

In cooperation with the General Authority of Islamic Affairs and Endowments, the Deanship of Student Affairs at Al Ain University of Science and Technology organized a religious lecture on Hajj at Yas Auditorium at the AAU campus in Al Ain.

During the lecture, Dr. Sheikh Ammar Ibrahim Hassan, first preacher at General Authority of Islamic Affairs and Endowments, highlighted the importance of the first ten days of Dhu al-Hijjah. He also explained, in length, the rites of Hajj and the things the pilgrims need to do and the mistakes they must avoid.

Dr. Ibtehal Aburezq, Dean of Student Affairs, pointed that AAU is keen to mark all occasions in the UAE. This lecture coincides with Eid al-Adha, and it seeks to help students understand the rituals of Hajj, which must be followed in the right order so as not fall in the common pitfalls as pilgrims unfortunately do.

At the AAU Abu Dhabi Campus, Dr. Maher Haswa, of the Faculty of Law, delivered a lecture organized by the Deanship of Student Affairs and in collaboration with the College of Law. During the lecture, Dr. Haswa highlighted the importance of the first ten days of Dhu al-Hijjah. He also explained the rites of Hajj and the things the pilgrims need to do.

Dr. Zuhrieh Shanaa, Deputy Dean of Student Affairs, pointed that AAU is keen to mark all occasions in the UAE. This lecture coincides with Eid al-Adha, and it seeks to help students understand the rituals of Hajj
