

Jul 10, 2013

AAU Sponsors Wanasah Event for Sick Children

Under the patronage of Al Ain University of Science and Technology, the Deanship of Students Affairs – Abu Dhabi Campus organized “Wanasah Party” for sick children in Sheikh Khalifah Medical City. Prof. Abdelhafid Belarbi, AAU Vice President, and Dr. Zuhrieh Shana’a, Deputy Dean of Student Affairs, attended the event in addition to volunteer students.

Prof. Belarbi delivered the opening speech reiterating AAU’s keenness on providing psychological and social support for sick children and spreading the spirit of joy amongst them.

The event included a number of entertaining performances including the clown, cartoon characters, children’s songs, and contests as well as coloring, face paint, play dough corner, and popcorn corner. At the end of the event, the sick children received gifts and toys which brought a smile to their faces.

Press Release Link