

Dec 23, 2013

AAU Visits Khalifa Medical City

A delegate of a faculty members from al Ain university visited the pediatric clinic and day care department in Khalifa Medical City in Abu Dhabi, to review the therapeutic, rehabilitation and training services and programmes.

The visit comes to interact the university with the community under it is commitment.

Among the attendance there were the Vice Dean of Business Administration College Dr. Samir Al-Barghouthi and number of a faculty members of Business Administration College.

The program included a visit for the children in their rooms, talk to them, stand up for their health and give them the moral support with giving the educational gifts so it fell them in happiness.

The Vice Dean of Business Administration College Dr. Samir AL-Barghothi said that these special visits to the patients and children is a positive example of a community partnership with other authorities which AL Ain University seeks to dedicate them through adopting many community programs participating them with institutes, government and private authorities

Press Release Link