

Nov 19, 2014

AAU Studetns' Visit to the Central Bank

The College of Law at the Al Ain University of Science and Technology, based in Abu Dhabi, under the supervision of Dr. Abdullah Hamid Al-Ghweiri, Assistant Professor of Commercial Law, in cooperation with the Interaction Commission with the Community, organized a visit to the UAE Central Bank with Dr. Ahmed Ali Al-Khasawneh and several students from the course "Commercial Banking" in order to inform students on the jobs provided by the Central Bank and the regulatory and supervisory role of banks and financial institutions within the country.

During the meeting, a joint discussion between the delegation, an adviser and expert, who are, respectively, Mrs. Nariman Qamber "Key Management", circle of banking supervision, Counselor Amro Ali, the "Inspection Officer" and Mr. Younes Aldelki 'Treasure Man' and a number of directors and representatives of the various departments.

The commission was briefed on the various sections as a control, inspection, treasury and the museum that includes UAE collectibles throughout the epochs. At the conclusion of the visit the AAU members, on behalf of the university, expressed their gratitude to the Central Bank and its

Press Release Link