Abu Dhabi Police GHQ Honors AAU

The Punishment and Correctional Institutions Department at the Abu Dhabi Police GHQ presented AAU with a certificate of gratitude in appreciation for the role the university has played in community engagement namely taking part in the UAE 42nd National Day celebration. The certificate was given during a visit by a delegation from the Punishment and Correctional Institutions Department to the AAU Chancellor, Dr. Noor Aldeen Atatreh in his office at Al Ain campus.

The delegation, on behalf of the Abu Dhabi Police GHQ, extended appreciation to AAU for its unflagging support of the institutions through allowing inmates at the punishment and correctional facilities to showcase their products which will encourage them to work and continue to improve their lives.

On his part, Dr. Atatreh welcomed the delegation and mentioned that the participations made by various age groups from the institutions have been positively received by the event goers who have also commended the idea.
