

Apr 12, 2015

Al Ain University of Science and Technology participates in honoring the distinguished candidates the Khalifa Educational Award

A number of AAU professors and students joined the honoring ceremony for the Khalifa Educational Award that was held at the Emirates Palace Hotel in Abu Dhabi in the presence of Sheikh Mansour bin Zayed Al Nahyan, Deputy Prime Minister and Minister of Presidential Affairs and Chairman of the Board of Trustees for Khalifa Educational Award, who also sponsored the event. In his welcoming speech he stressed that the Khalifa Educational Award has become a landmark in the history of educational awards within the state and beyond and it's the enlightening destination for educators to demonstrate excellence in the various educational fields.

He said that the goal for which the award was created is the development of the educational process and its employees that stipulates every prize winner to deepen into the field of education, which makes it an instrument of teaching evolution, and a means to ensure its quality, and based on that, the state developed a process for the development of education on the top of the list of national priorities.

In conclusion, Sheikh Mansour bin Zayed Al Nahyan and Sheikh Nahyan bin Mubarak Al Nahyan, Minister of Culture, Youth and Community Development awarded the winners in its 8th round in the year 2014/2015, in addition to granting certificates of appreciation to academics from 11 various disciplines.

Press Release Link