Al Ain University Participates in the Al Ain Warm Winter Campaign

Al Ain University of Science and Technology joined the Al Ain Warm Winter Campaign, which was held in the city of Al Ain. It was organized by the Al Ain Creativity and Hoor voluntary groups, targeting workers in the city and its suburbs, who work outside the closed building, such as the cleaners and other workers in construction, road paving and parkspaving of roads and parks.

Dr. Enas Abu Libdeh, Dean of Students Affairs, and university students took part in the campaign, which included the distribution of campaign gifts, adequate winter clothing and snacks.
