The Participation of AAU Students as Ambassadors of the Festival Palace Fortress

Al Ain University students in Abu Dhabi acted as ambassadors to the Palace Fortress in the third round of the Festival Palace Fortress, which was held over 10 days in the oldest historic landmark in Abu Dhabi. It was organized by the Abu Dhabi Authority for Culture and Tourism, which was held under the patronage of His Highness Sheikh Mohammed bin Zayed Al Nahyan, Crown Prince of Abu Dhabi and Deputy Supreme Commander of the Armed Forces. The festival hosted a variety of events and performances, reviewed aspects of the UAE history and culture.

The open space was celebrated in different environments and popular characters, in addition to customs and traditions, various popular games, as well as poets who chanted with the finest poems. Our well-trained students, who took part in the Qasr Al Hosn Ambassador program, had a excellent competences in developing the communication skills and learning all the details of the festival, its activities and events. They all took their positions within the festival to communicate with the visitors, provide them with all the necessary information and to contribute to the configuration of the connection between the guests and the miscellaneous cultural festival activities.
