

Feb 21, 2016

AAU –Abu Dhabi Campus- organized a lecture entitled “Electronic Crimes”

In collaboration with the Committee of the interaction with the community at the Faculty of Law, the Deanship of Student Affairs at Al Ain University of Science and Technology -Abu Dhabi Campus- organized a lecture entitled " Electronic Crimes", it was presented by Dr. Muntaha AL Maqabla - Assistant Professor of criminal law at the university, the lecture was attended by a group of the academic, administrative staff, and students.

Dr. Al Maqabla talked about Electronic Crimes which is guaranteed by Law No. (5) For the year 2012 and which replaced Law No. (2) For the year 2006 on combating cybercrimes.

She also talked about the sanctions decided by the legislator for these crimes which were under the previous law, or that have been developed in the current law in force, She mentioned during the lecture to some judgments in this regard of the Court of Cassation in Abu Dhabi .

In conclusion, a discussion between the doctor and the attendance included some of the questions related to the topic of the lecture.

Press Release Link