

Feb 21, 2016

AAU –Ad Campus- organized a lecture entitled “The role of research in the development of the industrial technology and performance improvement”

Because technology has become the language of the era, the Deanship of Student Affairs organized a lecture entitled “The Role of Research in the Development of Industrial Technology and Performance Improvement”, It was presented by Dr. Al Mabrook Eissa Suliman, and attended by the university faculty and students.

Dr. Suliman started with a brief about technology and the development stages, the role of researches on the development of the industrial technology and performance improvement.

Then, he talked about the researches and the development in the petroleum and gas fields, stressing on the importance of doing researches, exchanging knowledge and the learning of different fields.

At the end, Dr. Suliman discussed with the qualified students about the future training programs.

Press Release Link