

Dec 13, 2016

Discussing the cooperation aspects between AAU and the Family Development Foundation

H.E Maryam Al Rumaithi, Director-General of the Family Development Foundation, welcomed the visit of Dr. Noor El Deen Atatreh –Chancellor of Al Ain University of Science and Technology, where both parties met to discuss the most important issues with the common interest, and the cooperation aspects.

This meeting comes from the belief of the two institutions on the need of taking care of family, women, youth and children's issues, the educational issues as well.

Both parties agreed to hold conferences and seminars to discuss the family, women, youth and children's issues by working to stimulate the innovation among young people and encourage them to work, cooperation, exchanging expertise, sharing information, and cooperation in training and the creation of national cadres.

Dr. Atatreh stressed on the importance of cooperating with the Family Development Foundation, where Al Ain University of Science and Technology keen on Linking intellectual and academic initiatives of the university with the community activities, and achieving interaction between knowledge activities and the community concerns.

Press Release Link