

Mar 01, 2017

AAU signed MOU with Different Universities in UAE

Al Ain University of Science and Technology represented by Prof. Ghaleb El Refae -AAU President- and Dr. Nazih Khaddaj Mallat -Dean of the College of Engineering, witnessed signing a memorandum of understanding with several universities within the United Arab Emirates to strengthen the bonds of cooperation and joint action institutions and support UAE vision 2021.

Key items were discussed in the meeting, notably, the exchange of faculty and students between universities, disclosing of experiences of cooperation in the field of scientific research and community service, organizing common workshops and training courses and encouraging innovations.

Prof. El Refae stressed on the importance of signing this MOU, which exchange knowledge and experiences, he also stressed on the university's keenness to support scientific researches and serving the community in order to improve the quality of education in the United Arab Emirates.

Press Release Link