Overwhelming win for the College of Law Team at “Al Etihad” Championship

Al Ain University of Science and Technology concluded “Al Etihad” Championship, which was organized by the Administrative Unit in collaboration with the Deanship of Student Affairs at Abu Dhabi Campus, on the occasion of the 46th UAE National Day.

The final match witnessed a fierce competition between the College of Law team and the College of Mass Communication and Media, where the College of law team won the championship with a score of 12-2 goals

The coronation was by Dr. Hani Al Jarrah, Deputy Dean of Student Affairs, who had presented the championship cup and gold medals for the first-place team, while silver medals were awarded to the second-place team, and the players received awards.

Dr. Al Jarrah congratulated the winning team and said that the aim of this tournament comes from the belief of the AAU to provide students with a variety of skills in the fields of sports, culture, art and social sciences, as well as the scientific skills and knowledge they acquire from the university according to their specialization.

The Al Etihad championship is the first tournament held at the Al Ain University, where its matches are played according to the FUTSAL rules between the administrative staff and the AAU students from different colleges.
