AAU participates with the Al Ain Municipality in the Year of Zayed activities

Al Ain University of Science and Technology participated in the Year of Zayed activities organized by Al Ain Municipality, which included a variety of creative activities and theatrical performances, in addition to the participation of various governmental and private bodies.

The Deanship of Student Affairs represented AAU with special booth, presented University's programs and its most prominent services. The students also attended the theater performances organized by the Municipality.

This participation came within the framework of the AAU's keenness on enhancing community participation, effective communication with various external bodies and participation in various events that support the Year of Zayed 2018.
