May 28, 2018

AAU lunched "Ramadan Al Kheer" initiative

The Deanship of Student Affairs at Al Ain University, Abu Dhabi Campus, launched "Ramadan al Kheer" initiative in collaboration with "Fakhr Abu Dhabi" Volunteer Team of Al Jazeera Sports and Cultural Club, where they distributed Iftar meals for the needy families on the occasion of Ramadan.

This initiative aims to promote interdependence and participation in the provision of humanitarian and social services, bringing joy to the families and spreading an atmosphere of love and familiarity among the people during the holy month of Ramadan, in addition to fostering a culture of cooperation and volunteerism. Where Al Ain University is keen on organizing campaigns and initiatives that are in line with the virtues of Ramadan and contribute to the integration of students to be an active part and have a prominent role in the development of society.

Press Release Link