Free vaccination campaign against seasonal flu at AAU

The Deanship of Student Affairs at Al Ain University of Science and Technology, Abu Dhabi Campus, organized a free vaccination campaign against seasonal flu in cooperation with Mohamed bin Zayed City Healthcare Center. The campaign targeted AAU students and academic and administrative staff.

Al-Ain University organizes annually a free vaccination campaign against flu, where the vaccination provides protection against common viruses that cause disease.

The representatives of the Mohammed bin Zayed City Healthcare Center recommended that preventive measures must be taken to prevent and reduce the spread of the flu virus by following simple habits such as; covering mouth and nose when sneezing, coughing, hand washing well and not mixing with people in case of injury to avoid transmission of infection.
