A poetry Evening to spread Happiness

On the occasion of the International Happiness Day, A poetry evening organized by the Deanship of Student Affairs at Al Ain University, entitled: UAE .. Land of Happiness, with participation of a group of talented poets from the UAE and Arab world.

Organizing this evening came with the aim of spreading happiness and positivity among the community in the UAE, as it is the happiest country in the Arab world, as societal happiness in the UAE has become the policy, approach and goal of a country, the supreme goal of its government, and the characteristic of its honorable people.

Prof. Ibtehal Aburezeq, Dean of Student Affairs, said, "we are happy that we are surrounded by a constellation of local and Arab poets in the UAE to spread happiness, hope and everything beautiful, especially in light of the current surrounding circumstances due to the Covid-19, so that we prove that happiness does not exist, we must create it everywhere in the world.
