The College of Education participates in improving the Arabic and Islamic Studies programs

The College of Education, Humanities and Social Sciences at Al Ain University, participated in a virtual seminar organized by the Ministry of Education, represented by the Commission for Academic Accreditation (CAA) under the title "Measures for Improving the Arabic Language and Islamic Studies Programs".

Al Ain University was represented by; Prof. Ibtehal Aburezeq, Vice President of Development and Follow Up, Dr. Mohammad Faqeh and Dr. Maher Haswa.

The meeting discussed the procedures that would improve the admission requirements for students in the two programs; the Arabic Language and Islamic Studies, according to the Ministry's directives.

This meeting came as part of the Ministry's continuous efforts to improve the quality of academic standards and enhance the quality of learning opportunities that it provides to students through higher education institutions in the United Arab Emirates. Meanwhile, Al Ain University responded to the invitation as part of its endeavor to enhance constructive cooperation efforts to advance teaching and learning.
