

Nov 19, 2024

Students from the College of Communication and Media visit Al Arabiya Tv

In an effort to enhance the practical experience of students from the College of Communication and Media at Al Ain University, the college organized a field visit to the headquarters of Al Arabiya News Channel in Dubai for students enrolled in the Digital Journalism Writing and Art of Public Speaking courses.

The students were accompanied by Prof. Abdulkarim Al Zayani and Dr. Rania Abdullah, allowing them to observe the operations of one of the leading news channels in the Arab world.

The visit included a comprehensive tour of various departments, including newsrooms, live broadcast studios, preparation and production sections, and featured introductory meetings with the channel's team. The staff offered detailed explanations of the news production cycle, from preparation and editing to presentation and broadcasting.

The students praised the value of this practical experience, which allowed them to understand the challenges and requirements of the media profession firsthand, thereby enhancing their skills and professional abilities.

Al Arabiya's management expressed their pleasure in hosting the students and supporting their academic journey, emphasizing the importance of bridging theoretical education with practical application to prepare qualified media professionals.

This visit is part of a series of field activities organized by the college to develop students' skills and connect them with the realities of media practice in professional institutions.

Press Release Link