The College of Pharmacy Celebrates World Pharmacists Day with Visits to Abu Dhabi Schools

Faculty members from the College of Pharmacy at Al Ain University (Abu Dhabi campus), accompanied by a group of students, visited several schools in Abu Dhabi, including the Royal American School, International Community School, and British International School, to celebrate World Pharmacists Day. The faculty members provided a comprehensive introduction to the College of Pharmacy during the visit. They highlighted its major academic and research achievements, emphasizing the vital role of pharmacists in serving the community and promoting public health.

Students at the schools were informed about the significance of the pharmacy profession and how pharmacists contribute to healthcare, disease prevention, and medical consultations regarding medication use. The visit was met with great enthusiasm from the school students, who expressed interest in learning about pharmacy study paths and the role of pharmacists in daily life.

These visits aim to strengthen communication between the university and local schools and raise awareness among younger generations about the importance of healthcare professions and their role in building a healthy and sustainable society.
