

Al Ain University of Science and Technology

Information Technology Center > Community Engagement

Community Engagement

The ITC of AAU has a wide range of competencies and learning programs that serve internal and external communities. It also transfers knowledge and expertise to communities such as:

- Virtual Learning Management System (VLE) which facilitates the communication among students and lectures and delivering online courses.
- Professional training courses for teachers and students.
- Providing internship opportunities for AAUs' and UAE students.
- Providing lectures for high school students in internet skills.

View Page