

Deanship of Scientific Research & Graduate Studies > Goals and Objectives

Goals and Objectives

The goals of the Deanship are as follows:

- To help produce research and generate creative activities by encouraging research proposals from faculty and staff.
- To augment researcher competitiveness by providing seed funding for early-stage research projects.
- To link research initiatives to the university mission.
- To encourage submission of highly competitive proposals for external funding.

View Page